NEW CHURCH TO BE FORMED.

DR. HENRY A. STIMSON WILL BE CALLED TO THE PASTORATE.

ACTION AT A MEETING LAST NIGHT-A PLACE OF WORSHIP UPTOWN FOR WEST

SIDE CONGREGATIONALISTS. At a public meeting of about forty well-known men and women in Leslie's Rooms, Elghty-third-st, and the Boulevard, last evening, it was decided to organize a new church, to be known as the West Side Congregational Church, and to call to its pastorate the Rev. Dr. Henry A. Stimson, lately pastor of the Broadway Tabernacle, at Thirty-fourth-st. and Broadway. Clarence W. Bowen, of "The Indendent," was chairman, and Bradford K. Wiley, pendent." was chairman, and Fradicia & of Arnold, Constable & Co., secretary.

Mr. Bowen, in stating the object of the meeting, said that there was no Congregational church on the west side of Manhattan Island above the Central Congregational Church, of which the Rev. Dr. Lloyd is pastor, at Eighth-ave, and Flifty-seventh-st. so that there was a clear and ample field for the new place of worship. There were some members of the Tabernacle, he said, who would retain their membership there, but would be interested in and membership there, but would be interested in and assist the new church. The members of a commit-tee, which held a preliminary meeting about three weeks ago, had talked with others, and there was a manifest desire that the new church should be un-der the leadership of Dr. Stimson. Mr. Bowen read the following letter from the Rev. Dr. Storrs to Dr. Lucien C. Warner, of Warner Bros. & Co.:

Lucien C. Warner, of Warner Bros. & Co.:

Brookivn, May 18, 1896.

My Dear Mr. Warner: Dr. Stimson has told me something about the movement in New-York for a new Congregational church in the upper part of New-York I most earnestly hope that it will be carried on to a speedy and large success. It will seem to me a most happy and rewarding Providential issue to the painful listory of the last three years; and of all men whom I know Dr. Stimson is the man, by nature and by grace, fitted to lead such a movement toward rapid and commanding such a movement toward rapid and commanding results of good. With great regard, faithfully yours, results of good. With great regard, faithfully yours,

Mr. Wiley said he had talked with Dr. Stimson. who would consider a call. The expenses of the church, for its first year, would be about $12,000, including the pastor's salary and the rent for Leslie's

Revens.

A provisional committee of seven was appointed, only power to secure a place of worship and to exend a call to Dr. Stimson to the pastorate of the ew church, which will be opened about November The committee consists of Frank I. Underwood, wer B. Holmes, Charles A. Bennett, Bradford K. Eley, David Blakely, John F. Woodhull and Silas I. Paine. The meeting adjourned subject to the call the committee.

HIS HEIRS RICHER BY $350,000.

A BEQUEST OF J. H. STICKNEY TO CONGREGA-TIONAL CHURCHES DECLARED VOID.

Baltimore, June 2.-By a decision handed down in the Circuit Court to-day by Judge Dennis, $250,-600 which was willed to Congregational churches of New-York and Boston, by the late Joseph Henry Stickney, of this city, will go to his heirs, who are residents of Chicago. Mr. Stickney's will dis-posed of about $1,000,000. Among the bequests was $19,000 for the removal of the canopy over Plymouth Rock to Coles Hill, to the memory of those who, died the first winter after the landing of the Pil-grims, provided the Pilgrim Society should deem it advisable. This clause was decided to be void on account of the conditions imposed.

In the general residuary clause the remainder of the estate, amounting to $350,000, was left to the the estate, amounting to $30,000, was left to the American Congregational Union (now the Congregational Church Building Society), of New-York and Boston, provided the legatees should release their claims on certain Haltimore Congregational churches. The Court held that this clause was void as not being an absolute gift, and as it came into contact with the law against perpetuities. If Judge Dennis's opinion stands, Mr. Stickney's heirs will be richer by $350,000.

The Misses Lockwood's Collegiate School for girls had its commencement exercises in Willard Hall last night, and the audience filled the capacious auditorium. The young graduates gave an inspiration to the exercises in their essays, recitations, etc., such as is often observed in other preparatory schools, and they received flowers in abundance, and nearly all received graduation presents. Prayer was offered by the Rev. W. T. Granger, and then there were addresses by Dr. Manuel J. Drennan and Frank R. Chambers. Essays were read by the Misses Adams, Knox and Fisher, interspersed with recitations by the primary scholars. An exhibition of Indian club swinging was given by the junior pupils, followed by chorus singing, under the direction of Miss Fanny Granbery Levy. The graduates were Misses Mattle Archer, Marta Wilson Adams, Juanita Best Knox, May Fisher, Janet McIntoen, Florence Fischer, Dorothy Gay, Elsie Williams, Marian Waterbury, Anna Loomis and Virginia Henneberger.

The stagnation in the subject of public improvements in Sing Sing was taken up by President Brandreth at the meeting of the Board of Trustees last evening, when he advocated, in an address, the extension of the village limits to the south side of Mount Murray, from that point, to take an easterly direction, that will carry the line along the southern limit of Scarborough Park to the old Croton Aqueduct; from there to John Cockeroft's gate on the old Pines Bridge dam road, thence take the middle of the highway and run in a northerly direction by the camp-meeting woods to the road on the north, generally called the "Slaughter-house Road:" follow that road to its intersection with Dale-ave, from there to the Hudson River, thence to the point of beginning. This would cover a territory that the present high service of the water system would be able to supply with water, and is also well populated, and, with hardly any exception, all laid out in village lots. He also recommended that the charter be amended so as to not only cover this proposed extension, but to amend the sricle referring to the amount of procure a suitable courthouse and to pay the attendants of his court. The request could not be granted, as such an appropriation can only be secured either through the regular city burdet or as specially directed by the law creating the new court districts. As the law does not provide for the issue of bonts, the new Justice and his men will have to sale for their money, as will also the country of the new courthouse premises, until December, when the budget for 1857 is made up. TO ROW OVER THE OCEAN, THEY HOPE. On Saturday next at 5 p. m. two young men, George Herbo and Frank Samuelson, will start from New-York for Havre, to row over the Atlantic in a beat eighteen feet four inches long and five feet wide. The distance is 3.250 miles. The carsenen will use no sail. They will carry provisions for sixty days. The little beat lies adjoining the Harge office. Herbo and Samuelson are fishermen from Branchport, N. J. They say they are confident of accomplishing the trip.

INTEREST IN THE OCEAN HOUSE SOLD. Philip P. Timpson, formerly proprietor of the Hotel Bayard, at Broadway and Fifty-fourth-st., has purchased a one-half interest in the lease and business of the Ocean House, Long Branch, N. J., from John Spitler. The firm will be Timpson & Spitler. The Ocean House opens on June 25. The deal was made by the hotel broker, Matthew J. Ward, of this city.
